15/05-5 PUBLIC PARTICIPATION
 3 members present
 Concern was raised about the street light that have been removed in Winskill.
 A hedge is encroacing onto the pavement, it was discussed & deceied that the owner of the property was away working most of the time & that Cllr Preston would deal with this.
 The childrens play area in Winskill was discussed & thought is was maybe in need of some new equipment for younger children. The council advised some funding maybe available through Cllr Mary Robinson. It was left that they would look into quotes for the equipment and the clerk/council would be happy to help look for grants etc..
