ANY OTHER BUSINESS

Penrith Town Council are changing benches in town and K Stout advised it may be possible to request some of the old benches for our parish. Karl to look into and also look at state of all our current benches in the parish.

Clerk to contact Barclays Bank to get mandate change form.

Rachel Forster has raised a concern that the curb on the bridge near the swimming pool is high and of concern that children could stand on it and fall over. The curb is due to the Open Reach cables that were put over it. Clerk to email John Banks.
