- 20/01-5 MATTERS ARISING FROM THE MINUTES
 Dog Bin – clerk to chase
 Footway Lighting – clerk to get in writing the decision for the Winskill light.
 2 benches have be secured from Penrith Town Council – thanks to Karl for sorting this. Possible places for them include Winskill Bus Shelter & Little Salkeld.
- 20/01-6 DEBIBRILLATORS
 Alison Smith brought a defib to the meeting to show us how it works and to reiterate that it would be hard for a child to receive a shock from it, as this was a concern raised regarding the locked cabinet at Hunsonby Swimming pool. Council agreed to get the door & lock sorted on the cabinet as the code C159X does not work. Well Medical will do this.
 The defib for Little Salkeld – site needs to be sorted or we will lose it. Easter deadline given Idea put forward to ask Bank House Equestrian.
 Clerk has agreed to do checks on both defibs and to complete necessary paperwork.
 Alison suggested a meeting with Lauren Watson to go through this.

- 20/01-7 LITTLE SALKELD BUS SHELTER
Next application for funding is May 2020.
- 20/01-8 PRECEPT 2020/21
Current budget and precept were discussed. Agreed to leave precept at current amount of £4600. All donations to remain the same. Cheques to be done for next meeting.
Karl Stout brought a request from Hunsonby Swimming pool for a further donation ,as the pool has received a large unexpected heating and other works as required before the 2020 season. £3000 minimum is needed for the pool to open this year!! The council agreed a one off donation of £500 to help as the pool is a valued asset for the community.
